

Wine Spectator

By Bruce Sanderson

April 30, 2017

93
Points

Bouchard Père & Fils Le Corton Grand Cru 2014

This red is marked by ripe, crunchy cherry and raspberry fruit, accented by rich loam and chalky mineral notes. Firm, yet balanced and long on the spice- and smoke-tinged aftertaste.

MAISONS & DOMAINES
HENRIOT

AMERICA